SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The defendant further says that the plaintiff's claims are barred by the applicable statute of limitations and, therefore, the plaintiff may not recover.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

another for whose conduct this defendant is not legally responsible and, therefore, the plaintiff may not recover.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The defendant further says that if the plaintiff sustained damages as alleged in the First Amended Complaint, then all such damages were the result of the comparative negligence of the plaintiff's decedent, which comparative negligence was greater than any negligence on the part of the defendant and, therefore, the plaintiff may not recover.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The defendant further says that if the plaintiff sustained damages as alleged in the First Amended Complaint, then all such damages were the result of the comparative negligence of the plaintiff's decedent and, therefore, the Plaintiff's recovery, if any, must be diminished in accordance with the percentage of the plaintiff's decedent's comparative negligence all in accordance with G.L. c. 231, §85.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The defendant further says that the plaintiff's claims are subject to review by a Medical Malpractice Tribunal pursuant to the provisions of G.L. c. 231, § 60B, and, until such time as the said statute is complied with, the plaintiff may not recover in this action.
